DISCLOSURE NOTICE

SEC RULE 606 / NOTICE DISCLOSURE OF ORDER ROUTING INFORMATION (EQUITY SECURITIES)

SEC Rule 606 requires broker dealers to publicly disclose their order routing practices for non-directed client orders, as well as the material aspects of the relationships with the entities to whom the orders are routed. R. Seelaus & Co., LLC clears all of its equity and options trades through Pershing LLC. In accordance with the requirements of Rule 606, please refer to the following link for the publication of our Rule 606 report detailing our order routing information: <https://www.rseelaus.com/legal/> A copy of the respective quarterly firm reports may also be requested from your relationship manager. In addition, pursuant to SEC Rule 606(b), individual client order routing information is also available to clients upon request.

SEC RULE 607 / NOTICE DISCLOSURE REGARDING PAYMENT FOR ORDER FLOW (EQUITY SECURITIES)

Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 607 requires all registered broker-dealers to provide disclosures to customers regarding payment for order flow practices. R. Seelaus & Co., LLC routes equity orders to exchanges, electronic communication networks, or to other broker-dealers during normal business hours and during extended trading sessions. Some of those market centers may provide payments or charge access fees to R. Seelaus & Co., LLC depending upon the characteristics of the order and any subsequent executions. Information regarding these payments can be found by viewing R. Seelaus & Co., LLC's SEC Rule 606 Quarterly Routing Disclosure reports either via our clearing firm Pershing LLC, through SS&C Technologies, or through our Firm website. In addition, a paper copy may also be provided on request, along with any other details of these payments and fees. R. Seelaus & Co., LLC may receive compensation from routing exchange-listed options routed to broker-dealer intermediaries, which may utilize smart order routing technology or customized algorithms to achieve the best execution available under the particular circumstances of the specific transaction requested.

BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLAN DISCLOSURE ("BCP") (FINRA Rule 4370)

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 4370, R. Seelaus & Co., LLC has created and maintains a written BCP with procedures that are reasonably designed to enable firms to meet their obligations to customers, counterparties and other broker-dealers during an emergency or significant business disruption. R. Seelaus & Co., LLC, if necessary, will update this BCP in light of changes to firms' operations, structure, business or location periodically. In addition, as a U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission registered broker dealer, member FINRA and SIPC, we will coordinate our BCP with the BCP of our clearing firms Pershing LLC and Industrial and Commercial Bank of China. In the event of a business disruption, our goal is not only to safeguard our employees and property but to take the necessary steps to resume operations as quickly as possible depending upon the nature, scope, and severity of the business interruption.

USA PATRIOT ACT ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING NOTICE

In accordance with the United and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruction Terrorism Act ("USA Patriot Act") and to help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, financial institutions are required by Federal law to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each individual or entity that opens an account or requests credit.

What this means for individuals: When an individual opens an account or requests credit, we will ask for certain information regarding individuals which may include, but is not limited to, their name, residential address, date of birth, tax identification number, investing history, current place of employment, and any other information that allows us to identify them in a meaningful way. We may also ask to see a driver's license, passport or other identifying documents.

What this means for other legal entities: When a corporation, partnership, trust or other legal entity opens an account or requests credit, we will ask for the entity's name, physical address, tax identification number and other information that will allow us to identify the entity. We may also ask to see other identifying documents, such as certified articles of incorporation, partnership agreements or a trust instrument.

We may use documentary and non-documentary methods to obtain information from independent sources that will allow us to identify you. In the event that we do not receive the sufficient information to know our customer, R. Seelaus & Co., LLC reserves the right to either deny a new account opening or may close an existing account if the information set forth in a client file is no longer current.
